

Kantri Laif* Issue 5 Call for Stories

Kantri Laif is a newsletter that communicates and shares community stories, aspirations, research activities and results of Indigenous land and sea management initiatives across northern Australia, from Broome to Townsville and inclusive of the Torres Strait Islands.

Stories come from Indigenous people reporting on land and sea management activities on their own country across northern Australia.

Kantri Laif is a bi-annual newsletter distributed free of charge to readers within Australia and internationally.

The last issue featured stories about:

- The Indigenous Community Water Facilitator Network
- What is Indigenous Governance? A Yanyuwa Good News Story from the southwest Gulf
- Daly River Aboriginal Reference Group
- Integrated Training Delivering Better Results for Indigenous Rangers

If you would like to share your story with Kantri Laif readers, please submit a copy to the Kantri Laif Project Officer:

Email: kantrilaif@cdu.edu.au

Tel: 08 8946 6883

Fax: 08 8946 6388

Building 12 (Purple Precinct), Level 3, Room 27, Charles Darwin University, Darwin, NT 0909

The story must contain the following information:

Title: A brief descriptive title which outlines the topic of the story;

Author: Name of author(s);

Font: Standard (Times New Roman) font in 12pt with no formatting;

Length: 250-400 words;

Photo: If you wish to include a photo with your story please send your photo in the highest resolution available as a JPEG. Please download a copy of the Kantri Laif image consent form from our website or request a copy to be sent to you and send with any photos you wish to be included with your story.

Contact Details: Please list your contact details including organisation, phone, fax and email address.

We encourage images of people working on country. If you would like to share images of what you're doing please give us permission to use them. This would help a lot to tell a bit about what you're sharing with readers.

Closing date for submissions is Monday November 24th 2008